ENGINEERING EMPLOYERS' FEDERATION · EEF

Employment Act 1982

EMPLOYERS' GUIDE to the CLOSED SHOP

331.8892

Explanatory Note

This guide is one of a series of guides prepared by the Engineering Employers' Federation to examine the implications of the Employment Act 1982.

The guide cannot, of course, take the place of the Act, and it is not intended as a complete or authoritative statement of the law. In the event of there being a dispute as to the interpretation of any of the provisions of the Act, only a court of law or an industrial tribunal can decide the issue.

Where fi
ber firms
Associatior

NCI Library
3 9006 01054013 8

BOOKS TO BE RETURNED BY:-

2 0 APR 1994

Engineering
Broadway H
Tothill Stree
London SW1
Tel: 01-222 7
Telex: 88147

A. Bowman & Company Ltd

£1.00 – Members
.00 – Non-members
June 1983

EMPLOYERS' GUIDE to the CLOSED SHOP

College of Industrial Relations.
RN 2733
STUDENTS' LIBRARY.

Contents

	Para
I Introduction
Employment Act 1982	1-3
II Identifying the Closed Shop
Definition of closed shop	4
The extent of the closed shop	5-7
Identifying the closed shop	8-11
III The Law Relating to Dismissal and the Closed Shop
Dismissal and the closed shop	12-13
Special cases	14
Dismissal for not making payments in lieu of union membership	15
Ballots	16-18
Reapproval ballots	19
Compensation for unfair dismissal	20-21
Joinder	22
Code of Practice	23-24
IV Reviewing Existing Closed Shops
The need to review	26-28
How has the closed shop been operated in the past?	29-32
How will the closed shop be operated in the future?	33-35
Approval	36-37
Amendment	38-40
No change	41-43
Termination	44-47
Ballots and opinion sampling	48-51
Procedure	52-55
V New Closed Shops
Company policy	56-58
Basis of introduction	59
VI Balloting for Closed Shops
Approval by secret ballot	60-62

VII Contents of Closed Shop Agreements

Contents	63
Parties to the agreement	64
Intention of agreement	65
Special cases	66
Payments to a third party	67
Failure to comply, and procedure	68-70
Variation, termination, and re-approval ballots	71-72
Other terms	73